MASTER MANUFACTURING TEAM

BUILD YOUR MASTER MANUFACTURING TEAM

1 CONTRACT MANUFACTURER

For US inventors, entrepreneurs and product marketers, Alotech is a masterful contract manufacturer that provides a full bundle of unique capabilities to take a product to market, partnering with you to provide creative investments into inventory and product development to help you achieve efficient independence and scalability rapidly.

2 INVESTOR

Your investor alleviates a considerable financial burden for new companies by committing principal with the expectation of financial gain and supplementing cash flow.

3 MARKET RESEARCH TEAM

Before a product or service is introduced to market, your market research team can analyze and gather necessary research including demographics, prospect characteristics, consumption, competitors

4 PATENT/LICENSING ATTORNEY

Your patent attorney is a vital member of the team for handling legal matters that exist beyond the expertise of the inventor. They represent the interests of the inventor; intellectual property, contracts, documentation, infringement, licensing, regulations.

5 LICENSING COMPANY

Your licensing company creates and manages contracts between the owner of the brand and a company or individual who wants is important to distinguish the original owner of the brand; a process Alotech replicates often in working with clients.

6 DISTRIBUTORS/MARKETING TEAM

Your distributor can help identify and manage the sales funnel of a new product, and also also offers promotion through ongoing management and monitoring of digital and traditional media outlets.

7 COACH/MENTOR

The involvement of an impartial coach or mentor is important for objectivity in the strategic process and granting experience and expertise to maintain focus on the end results.
